LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

My vision for the new year

Before we reflect on a year of compelling art exhibits, dynamic classes, and engaging educational programs, we must acknowledge outgoing Executive Director Miyai Abe Griggs. Her dedicated leadership and service to the museum over the past 12+ years is exemplary. She weathered the COVID storm and is leaving the museum in a fiscally strong position, having developed remarkable relationships with artists, members, and community leaders. Thanks to her hard work, we had the opportunity to build museum staff, increase our presence, and develop meaningful collaborations with other institutions in our community. Miyai was more than our boss; she was a friend and partner in a plethora of museum endeavors including fundraisers, challenging installations, exquisite events, and so much more. We will truly miss her, and we wish her well.

We would also like to thank outgoing Board President Kim Southwick for her equally exemplary leadership and service to the museum over the past ten years. Kim has dedicated so much of her time, talent, and energy to ensure TAM's ongoing success.

I am honored to step into the role of Executive Director and thank the Board of Directors, Miyai, and the talented staff for their trust and guidance in helping me take the lead in moving our vibrant institution forward. Having worked with both past Executive Directors Chris Hatch and Miyai, I have experienced what great leadership looks like. I have big shoes to fill. I care deeply about the museum and have dedicated the better part of my adult life to its success. While I am sad to step away from my 20-year position as Education Director, I assure you that our commitment to exceptional educational opportunities for children and adults in the community will continue to be at the core of our mission.

The 2022-23 season marks our 20th-anniversary and we're working to develop a strong plan for the next twenty years to come. We plan to update our strategic plan outlining our future goals and objectives, continue to increase our presence in the community, and expand the museum to include our Education Wing. Our mission remains the same—to enhance our lives, inspire creativity, and deliver stimulating educational programs that are relevant and engaging. We are more than a museum and strive to be a cultural hub for our community.

Over the last few months, we have added new staff, including Communications Director Chloe O'Laughlin, Education Director Emily Wunderlich, and Museum Coordinator Ryan De Frisco. Our team is filled with exceptional expertise, drive, and intelligence. New staff brings new ideas and new goals, positive energy and enthusiasm.

We want to express our heartfelt appreciation to our dedicated supporters and patrons whose generosity and commitment enable us to provide world-class exhibitions and educational programs to the broader community. We are grateful for your trust in our vision and inspired by the impact we have made together. Thank you for being an integral part of our museum family and helping us shape our community's cultural landscape.

Executive Director

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

A Farewell Letter

Let me begin by saying how privileged I feel to have served this art museum as a board member for over 10 years and in the past two years as Board President. I wish to thank Miyai, Jessica, Alexa and the staff for fulfilling and valuable experiences over the years.

When I started this journey, I had no idea that I would witness the spirit and tenacity of a group of people that performed their chosen career because of their love for this small organization and making a difference in people's lives. It has truly been impressive! The reach of TAM requires a team, whether it is teaching a child, curating a show, organizing expenses, working with an artist or posting on social media. I've said it before, and it continues to be true, year after year; this foundation is held up by a handful of people with heart and soul to help TAM thrive!

I began this journey with minimal expectations, not sure how I could contribute, but willing to help in any way. That's what it takes, a willingness to help and support which can lead to the giving of your expertise, your suggestions, and your leadership. We all have the power to make a difference for our nonprofits. I challenge each of you to lend your unique self and choose to be a part of something that will make you grow, find a purpose, and make an impact in one way or another on our world. If I can do it, you can too!

I want to send a big shout out to Miyai and all that she has accomplished. She is a shining example of taking one day at a time, putting in the work, and achieving greatness. Alexa has her work cut out for her, but I have confidence in her abilities to continue the mission and to make it greater than we ever thought possible. These two ladies have and will continue to leave a mark of excellence.

Thank you, TAM, for teaching me invaluable lessons over these past years, for allowing me to make a mark, and for discovering that serving is a great joy in life. I will leave you with a quote from Jon Gordon; "You are not a true success unless you are helping others be successful."

ARTWORKS

Since 2003, TAM has taken art processes into regional elementary school classrooms to strengthen students' understanding of and skills in the arts, brought students to TAM for guided exhibit tours with related art lessons, and provided visual arts educational opportunities for area educators.

TAM continued to serve as a vital visual arts resource for local schools, community organizations and families. Through TAM's education program, ARTworks, which implements the Idaho Humanities Performance Standards and national Core Arts Standards.

Museum-sanctioned art educators provided 100 art lessons in third and fourth grade classrooms in Idaho Falls and rural schools including Dubois, Riverview, Howe and Firth, extending free hands-on art-making opportunities.

Three free Family Days to the public offered art-making opportunities to more than 3,000 community members and strengthened their understanding of our exhibited artwork. In addition, TAM provided over 300 students with guided museum tours with art lessons and seven monthly art visits to preschool students at Head Start. In April, the annual "Young at Art" exhibit and the "Congressional Art Competition" featured the artwork of over 900 Idaho students, grades K-12. In July, nine regional educators participated in a four day ARTworks Summer Teacher Workshop helping teachers integrate the visual arts into their existing curriculum.

In total, the ARTworks outreach program impacted over 9,000 students, teachers and family members during the 2022-2023 school year.

YOUTH CLASSES

In 2022-2023, youth classes such as Artistic Adventures, Tweens on the Wheel and Mud Club were offered to children ages 3-14. Students explored core art principles, developed fine art techniques and engaged in a broad range of art-making processes from drawing to sculpture. In spring 2023, we started monthly sessions of Storytime at TAM. Participants enjoy a picture book highlighting an artist, artistic process or inspiring illustrations followed by a hands-on art lesson. In March, for the third year TAM and the Idaho Falls Zoo collaborated on a spring break camp for students ages 5-12. Participants spent two days at the zoo and two days at The Art Museum exploring art forms inspired by the close study of animals and their habitats. In the summer of 2022, TAM offered three ARTrek camps for youth ages 6-13. Students explored traditional and contemporary art forms and artists from cultures around the world. In May, TAM educators participated in the two-day STEAM Day at the Zoo for all second grade students in District 91.

2022-2023 EDUCATION

ROUNDUP

KIDSTUDIO

The CHC KIDStudio provides a child-friendly interactive art space providing opportunities for families visiting The Art Museum. Sculpture, drawing and design materials are available, and the room also offers a wall-mounted drawing easel, a magnetic shapes wall activity board, children's art books and puzzles and an inset light box table for color exploration. In addition, an exhibit scavenger hunt is available to encourage young visitors to engage fully with museum exhibits.

ADULTS CLASSES & WORKSHOPS

During 2022-2023, TAM offered a diverse range of classes and workshops for adults including watercolor workshops with Linda Aman and Gloria Miller Allen and a still life oil painting workshop with Gerald Griffin. In addition, TAM offered three monthly ceramics classes with Alison Bailey and Dustin Thompson. Monthly Open Studio sessions are offered year round to help Museum Artist refine their figure drawing and painting skills.

Adult classes engage new and emerging artists, allowing beginning students to develop their own artistic voice and advance in techniques. Intermediate and advanced classes and workshops help established artists connect with new approaches and refine their skills.

TAM has enlisted the services of Nancy Koonce, a CPA and fraud specialist at Harris CPAs. Koonce's extensive knowledge of accounting for nonprofits has provided invaluable guidance to TAM. "Keeping nonprofit financial records for a public museum is different from bookkeeping at a 'for profit' business or entity. Nancy's counsel provides a whole new level of accountability and transparency to our financials," according to Jessica Hull Livesay, Business Manager. Koonce provides excellent technical advice and counsel along with reviewing the books on a monthly basis.

IN LOVING MEMORY

COLLEEN BARBER

April 20, 1938 - October 26, 2022

One of our longest-serving, cherished volunteers, Colleen Barber passed away on October 26, 2022. Both as an artist and as one of a core group of original volunteers, Colleen was fully committed to the success of a brand-new, little art museum in the early years. Each week, for more than fifteen years, she continued to be an integral part of the art museum, greeting visitors with her warm smile and engaging conversation from the front desk and lovingly caring for staff like a true grandmother.

BEVERLY MACAULAY

July 7, 1938 - December 11, 2022

Our dear friend and talented artist, Beverly Macaulay, passed away on December 11, 2022. An integral part of our arts community for so many years, her BIG heart, quick wit and constant words of encouragement are just a few of the things we cherished about Beverly. She will truly be missed by us all!

KATHRYN BROWNING

January 17, 1924 - December 22, 2022

We are saddened to learn of the passing of Kathryn Browning on December 22 at the age of 98. As a founding member of the Bonneville Art Association and a prominent member of the Eagle Rock Art Guild for many years, she influenced a generation of artists in our community.

ALICE FOSTER TRUMBLEE

June 16, 1925 - May 21, 2023

We are so saddened to learn of the passing of Alice Trumblee. A beloved art teacher for more than 30 years, she influenced generations of aspiring artists at Bonneville, Idaho Falls, and Skyline high schools.

As a prominent member of the Idaho Falls Art Guild (now the Eagle Rock Art Guild) for many years, Trumblee saw the completion of The Art Museum in the fall of 2002 after ten years of raising building funds and served on its original board of directors.
